

Must, Might, Should

Teacher
Renan Grossi
(51) 98135 3067

Quick Reminder

- Must = strong obligation / logical certainty
- Might = possibility
- Should = advice / recommendation / expectation

Exercise 1: Fill in the Blanks (Mixed Forms)

Complete with must, might, or should + the correct form of the verb.

1. He _____ (be) very tired. He has been working all day.
2. You _____ (see) a doctor if you're feeling ill.
3. They _____ (be) at home. The lights are on.
4. She _____ (not / stay) up so late. It's not good for her health.
5. He _____ (forget) about the meeting. He isn't answering his phone.
6. You _____ (apologize) to her for being rude.
7. It _____ (rain) later, so take an umbrella.
8. They _____ (be) lost. They've been driving around for hours.
9. We _____ (leave) now if we want to catch the bus.
10. She _____ (not / eat) so much junk food. It's bad for her.

Exercise 2: Multiple Choice

Choose the best modal.

1. You _____ be very careful with this delicate vase.
(a) must (b) might (c) should
2. He _____ be the one who broke the window. He was playing outside.
(a) must (b) might (c) should
3. If you want to improve, you _____ practice more.
(a) must (b) might (c) should
4. They _____ be at the park now. They usually go there in the afternoon.
(a) must (b) might (c) should
5. You _____ finish your homework before playing games.
(a) must (b) might (c) should
6. She _____ be on her way. She left an hour ago.
(a) must (b) might (c) should
7. You _____ check the weather before you go hiking.
(a) must (b) might (c) should
8. He _____ be late. He called to say he was stuck in traffic.
(a) must (b) might (c) should

9. You _____ wear a helmet when riding a bike.

(a) must (b) might (c) should

10. She _____ be studying in the library.

She goes there every afternoon.

(a) must (b) might (c) should

2. She should go to the doctor if she feels sick. →

3. He might be to late for the meeting. →

4. They mustn't have arrive yet. →

5. You should apologizes for your mistake. →

6. It might rains tomorrow. →

7. We must leaving now. →

8. She should not to eat so much junk food. →

9. He must be tired after work, mustn't he? →

10. You might to call her later. →

Exercise 3: Forming Sentences

Rearrange the words to form correct sentences.

1. (homework / you / finish / must) →

2. (we / protect / the / environment / must)

→

3. (not / they / leave / early / should) →

4. (call / she / later / might) →

5. (cooking / I / should / start / dinner) →

6. (you / not / eat / so / much / sugar / should) →

7. (he / be / tired / must) →

8. (rain / it / might / later) →

9. (apologize / you / should) →

10. (they / be / lost / might) →

Exercise 4: Error Correction

Correct the mistakes.

1. You must to be careful when handling glass. →

Exercise 5: Context-Based Dialogue

Complete the dialogue with appropriate modals.

Mom: It's getting late. You _____ (be) tired.
You _____ (go) to bed soon.

Child: But Mom, I _____ (not / finish) my homework yet.

Mom: You _____ (finish) it tomorrow morning. You really _____ (not / stay) up so late.

Child: Okay. _____ I (read) one more chapter first?

Mom: Yes, but only one. And you _____ (not / forget) to brush your teeth.