Milan is known for its vibrant culinary scene, offering a variety of excellent dining options. Here are some good restaurants in Milan that you may want to check out:

1. Trattoria Toscana Da Laura: This charming trattoria in the Brera neighborhood is known for its delicious Tuscan dishes, such as pappardelle with wild boar ragù and Florentine-style T-bone steak.
2. Il Luogo di Aimo e Nadia: This Michelin-starred restaurant in the outskirts of Milan offers an elegant and innovative cuisine, with a focus on traditional Lombard recipes reinterpreted in a contemporary way.
3. Ratanà: Located in the trendy Isola neighborhood, Ratanà features a menu that highlights regional and seasonal ingredients. Dishes include risotto with saffron and braised ossobuco.
4. El Porteño: This Argentine steakhouse in the Navigli district offers high-quality meats cooked on a wood-fired grill. Try the bife de chorizo or the empanadas.
5. Ghe Sem: A tiny but excellent Cantonese restaurant in the Chinatown area, with a wide selection of dim sum and other classic Chinese dishes.
6. Al Pont de Ferr: This cozy restaurant near the Naviglio Grande canal offers a creative and contemporary take on traditional Milanese and Lombard cuisine, with a particular emphasis on seafood.
7. Paper Moon: A classic Italian restaurant in the heart of Milan, Paper Moon is known for its stylish decor and crowd-pleasing menu of pasta, pizza, and other Italian favorites.

These are just a few of the many excellent restaurants in Milan, but they all offer a unique and delicious culinary experience.

Monza and Milan offer a variety of exciting activities and sights to explore. Here are some places to visit and things to do in these two cities:

Monza:

1. Monza Park: A beautiful park located in the heart of Monza, featuring stunning gardens, lakes, and historic buildings. The park is also home to the famous Monza Circuit, a racetrack that hosts the Italian Grand Prix.
2. Duomo di Monza: A beautiful cathedral that dates back to the 6th century. It is known for its striking facade and intricate interior, which features a number of stunning frescoes and works of art.
3. Villa Reale: A magnificent palace located in the center of Monza, built in the neoclassical style. The villa is home to a number of museums and galleries, as well as beautiful gardens.
4. Autodromo Nazionale di Monza: A legendary racetrack that has hosted some of the most prestigious motorsport events in the world. You can take a guided tour of the track and see the famous banking curves.

Milan:

1. Duomo di Milano: One of the most iconic landmarks in Milan, the cathedral is known for its impressive gothic architecture and stunning views of the city from its roof terrace.
2. Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II: A beautiful shopping arcade located in the heart of Milan, featuring high-end designer shops, restaurants, and cafes.
3. La Scala Opera House: One of the most famous opera houses in the world, La Scala has hosted some of the most renowned singers and performers in history. You can take a guided tour of the theater and its museum.
4. Pinacoteca di Brera: One of the most important art museums in Italy, featuring an extensive collection of works from Italian and European artists.
5. Navigli: A charming neighborhood in Milan known for its picturesque canals, lively nightlife, and many restaurants and bars.
6. Sforza Castle: A medieval fortress that has been transformed into a museum, showcasing a collection of artworks and historic artifacts from the Renaissance period.

These are just a few of the many attractions and things to do in Monza and Milan, but they offer a glimpse into the rich cultural and historical heritage of these two cities.
