Anna and Mark had been planning their trip to the United States for months. Finally, the day arrived, and they were ready to set off on their 5 adventure. They packed up their suitcases the night before and made sure to check in online for their flight.

At the airport, they checked in their luggage and went through security without any issues. They 10 had a couple of hours before boarding, so they decided to browse around the duty-free shops. Anna found a nice perfume and decided to pick it up as a souvenir.

Once they boarded the plane, they settled in 15 for the long flight. Mark pulled out his tablet to watch a movie, while Anna dozed off for a nap. The flight was smooth, and they touched down in New York City in the early afternoon.

After they got through customs, they picked 20 up their rental car and headed out to their hotel.
They were excited to check out Times Square, so after freshening up at the hotel, they headed over to the bustling area. The lights and energy were amazing, and they took in the sights and sounds of 25 the city.

The next day, they decided to drive down to Washington, D.C. They set out early to avoid traffic and made good time on the road. Upon arriving, they checked into their new hotel and set off to explore 30 the National Mall. They walked around the monuments and took in the history and significance of each one.

Throughout their trip, they ate out at various local restaurants, picked up some souvenirs, and 35 even met up with an old friend who had moved to the U.S. a few years ago. They were sad when it was time to pack up and head back home, but they had countless memories and photos to look back on.

On the last day, they checked out of their 40 hotel, dropped off the rental car, and headed to the airport. As they boarded their flight back home, they reflected on the incredible experiences they had and looked forward to their next adventure.
