

SAY, TALK, SPEAK, TELL

Teacher
Renan Grossi
Tel.: 98135 3067

Fill in the blanks with "say," "talk," "speak," or "tell" in the present perfect tense.

1. I _____ to my manager about the new project several times this week.
2. She _____ that she will come to the party, but she hasn't shown up yet.
3. We _____ to the teacher about our concerns, and she is going to address them.
4. They _____ us the story of how they met many times.
5. He _____ three languages fluently since he was a child.
6. I _____ you before that it's important to be on time.
7. The director _____ in many conferences about environmental issues.
8. You _____ to your friend about your plans for the weekend, haven't you?
9. My colleague _____ me that the meeting has been postponed.
10. We _____ about this problem for hours, but we still haven't found a solution.

Correct the errors in the use of "say," "talk," "speak," or "tell" in the following sentences. Use either the simple past tense with an adverb of time or the present perfect tense.

1. The doctor has talked the patient that the treatment is effective.
2. We have said to the plumber about the leaking pipes last night.
3. She has spoken many times that she loves painting.
4. He has said us an interesting fact during breakfast yesterday.
5. The scientist has talked about his research at the conference last week.
6. I have said to my colleague about the new project this afternoon.
7. The mentor has spoken the interns to complete the task by tomorrow.
8. They have told about their new product.
9. She has talked that she is learning a new language.
10. We have spoken our neighbors about the noisy construction last month.

Select the correct form of "say," "talk," "speak," or "tell" in either the simple past tense or the present perfect tense for each sentence.

The manager _____ the team that the project deadline is extended.

a) has said

b) said

c) has told
d) told

We _____ to the technician about the computer issues last week.

- a) have said
- b) said
- c) have spoken
- d) spoke

I _____ to my friend about the concert this morning.

- a) have said
- b) said
- c) have talked
- d) talked

She _____ many times that she enjoys hiking. The instructor _____ the students to read the chapter by next class.

- a) has said
- b) said
- c) has told
- d) told

- a) has said
- b) said
- c) has told
- d) told

He _____ us a funny joke during lunch yesterday.

- a) has said
- b) said
- c) has told
- d) told

They _____ about their vacation plans.

- a) have said
- b) said
- c) have talked
- d) talked

The author _____ about his new book at the event last month.

- a) has said
- b) said
- c) has spoken
- d) spoke

She _____ that she is planning to start a new business.

- a) has said
- b) said
- c) has told
- d) told

We _____ our neighbors about the upcoming community event yesterday.

- a) have said
- b) said
- c) have told
- d) told